izzy+ products earn three awards at The Office Exhibition 2010 in Dubai

The Office Awards recognize Dewey, Olivia and Elliot as innovative products and designs

SPRING LAKE, Mich. – February 11, 2010 – Making its debut in 2010, The Office Awards competition honored office furniture and seating company izzy+ with three Silver awards during The Office Exhibition 2010, 9-11 February, at Dubai World Trade Centre.

In the category of education, The Office Awards presented a Silver award to Dewey, the 2009 Best of NeoCon Gold award-winning furniture collection for education solutions. Olivia, a lounge/side chair hybrid that offers equal parts comfort, function and style, earned a Silver award in the category of public seating. Elliot, the 2009 Best of NeoCon Silver award winner for height-adjustable worksurfaces, won a Silver award in the category of Worksurfaces.

Joey Ruiter of Michigan's JRuiter Studio designed both Dewey and Elliot for izzy+. The designers of Olivia are bangdesign's Bryan Marshall and David Granger, based in Sydney, Australia.

The Office Awards highlights innovative products and designs in categories that include seating, files and storage, and tables.

Sponsored by Bene and judged by Gensler, Cityscape, EMS and Reliance FM & Green Technologies, the awards were presented by Bernard Walsh, managing director of dmg world media.
